Balancing Innovation and Risk:
The Basics of Surplus Lines and the Future of AI Regulation

April 29, 2026 & April 30, 2026
The Hotel Hershey
Hershey, Pennsylvania

Dear PSLA Colleague:

The Pennsylvania Surplus Lines Association cordially invites you to attend the 2026 Annual Meeting on April 29, 2026 & April 30, 2026 at The Hotel Hershey in Hershey, Pennsylvania.

Christine Cashen, award winning motivational speaker, presenter and author, will be the keynote speaker.

In addition, there will be a magic performance by George Ripley of Ripley's Magic during the Cocktail Reception.

There will also be a two-hour Continuing Education presentation by Saul Ewing LLP; the presentation will cover the following topics:

- The Basics of Surplus Lines Regulation
- The Current State of AI in the Insurance Industry and the Future of Artificial Intelligence Regulation
- Current Cyber Threats and What is Happening in the Industry

The Annual Meeting is a vitally important opportunity for you, your company and your colleagues to gain information relating to industry changes, emerging risks and regulatory developments. I hope you and members of your organization will join us and your surplus lines colleagues for this informative conference as we bring together the various elements comprising the surplus lines marketplace in Pennsylvania. I look forward to welcoming you at The Hotel Hershey on April 29, 2026 & April 30, 2026.

Linda M. Bobro
President, Pennsylvania Surplus Lines Association

General Information

Keynote Speaker

Christine Cashen

Christine Cashen is more than just a speaker - she's a force of nature. With over two decades of experience entertaining crowds, Christine has earned a reputation as one of the best in the business.

Her talent for finding the humor in everyday situations is unmatched, and her ability to turn those moments into something magical is nothing short of amazing. Whether she's delivering messages of positivity and productivity or just making people laugh, Christine's unique perspective on life is both refreshing and insightful.

In addition to her humor, Christine is also a certified speaking professional (CSP) and certified virtual presenter. She is one of the select group of individuals to meet the rigorous induction criteria of the National Speakers Association, CPAE Speaker Hall of Fame.

But Christine is more than just a speaker, her award-winning books, THE GOOD STUFF: Quips & Tips on Life, Love, Work and Happiness and It's YOUR Business: Good Stuff for Your Personal, Professional, and Funny Business, are must-reads for anyone looking for a healthy dose of humor and great ideas.

Despite her success, Christine remains grounded and humble. She holds a bachelor's degree in communication and a master's degree in Adult Education, and in 2016, she was awarded an honorary doctorate from Central Michigan University. Before becoming a speaker, she worked as a university admissions officer, corporate trainer, and broadcaster.

But above all else, Christine is a survivor. As a cancer survivor, she knows what it takes to overcome adversity and come out stronger on the other side. She's a mother of two, wife of a "hottie engineer," and a true inspiration to anyone looking to live their best life.

Cocktail Reception Entertainment

George Ripley, Ripley's Magic

George Ripley is the sole owner and entertainer of Ripley's Magic where he performs professional magic in the Northeast USA. George has been a three-time regional finalist for Americas Got Talent where he performed exclusively for the executive producers in Philadelphia and New York City. George recently had his own television segment on Fox 43 Morning News titled "Magic in the Morning" where he performed magic live on air for the news anchors and viewing audience. An interesting fact about George is that he is a recently retired homicide detective who has been internationally published and interviewed on local TV on the unconventional use of magic to build rapport and progress investigations. His goal is always to share magical moments with people and smiles.

Continuing Education

Kara P. Pike, Esq., Frederic M. Garsson, Esq., Matt Haar, Esq. and William Latza, Esq. of Saul Ewing LLP will present a two-hour Continuing Education course for two CE credits on the following topics:

This program covers the fundamentals of surplus lines insurance in Pennsylvania and the growing role of artificial intelligence in the insurance industry. Attendees will learn about key regulatory and compliance considerations in the Pennsylvania surplus lines market, including Disciplinary "Do's" and "Don'ts" for surplus lines licensees. This program will also explore how AI is transforming the insurance policy life cycle through data-driven tools and automation and highlight recent cases that identify potential risks associated with the use of AI. Finally, the program will address recent cyber threats and cases stemming from recent cyber incidents.

General Information

Hotel Information

Since 1933, The Hotel Hershey has defined service, luxury, and elegance without pretense. Historically inspired by a Mediterranean postcard and the need to provide jobs during the Great Depression, chocolate magnate Milton S. Hershey built the hotel of his dreams overlooking the cocoa-scented town that famously bore his name.
